SPECIAL NOTE FOR FAMILIES

Since the Retreat is a spiritual event for families, children, of course, are welcome. At the same time, in a spirit of charitable consideration for others, please be aware that certain events (especially the spiritual conferences) may prove long and tedious for small children. For those who wish, a special program for children will also be offered on Saturday under the supervision of young adults. Please notify us in advance in the RSVP if you wish your children to participate.
